FRANCO'S

RESTAURANT

Franco's Family Restaurant of Madison, Indiana is dedicated first and foremost to producing delicious and affordable meals from high-quality ingredients that are as fresh as possible. Each and every day, we use fresh meats, cheeses, vegetables, breads, and herbs for all of our menu items, most of which are prepared when you order and none of which are prepared earlier than that morning. This has been and still is the way that Italians from all walks of life approach cooking. For meats, cheeses, and breads that require off-site preparation before they come to us, we are proud to have partnered with Boar's Head Provisions and La Brea Bakery.

Because of this focus on quality and freshness, Franco's can provide rich flavor without resorting to substances that unnecessarily increase saturated fat, cholesterol, and sodium, which doctors recommend limiting. Instead, when we want to enhance the natural flavors of our ingredients, we turn mostly to regular and extra-virgin olive oil, canola oil, fresh herbs and spices, and small amounts of wine. In addition, we offer many whole-wheat and whole-grain options, which are high in healthy fiber as well as delicious. We are also committed to another type of health: the health of our environment. We ensure that all of our take-away containers are recyclable, so please take care to recycle them whenever possible.

Franco's Family Restaurant was opened in 2009 by Franco and Mabelle Lubrano, who came to the United States in 1993 from the port city of Genoa in the Liguria region of northern Italy. While raising their two sons, Christian and Alberto, in Miami, Florida, Mabelle established a home-run catering business that for more than 20 years honed her skills as a chef of Italian cuisine. Eventually, Christian attended Hanover College in nearby Hanover and settled here in Madison, and after Alberto also enrolled at the college, Franco and Mabelle followed them to southeastern Indiana. Their fine cooking first came to the attention of area residents by way of Madison's annual Soup, Stew, Chili, and Brew event, at the booth of Fair Play Fire Company No. 1.

We thank the people of Madison and beyond for your enthusiastic welcome and for your insistence that such cuisine was worthy of its own restaurant. Well, here we are, and we hope to see you again and again.
